Good morning,

For your awareness, we received the info below. Not sure how legit it is or how many plan on attending.

We'll prepare messaging should it disrupt traffic on Saturday.

Thanks,
Rob

Subject: It's a go! Feb 19th "O Canada" Drive

We're rolling on Feb 19th!

Manitoba Freedom Drive is organizing an "O Canada" drive on the South half of Winnipeg's Perimeter Hwy on Saturday Feb 19th, 2022 in support of lifting all Federal Covid Mandates and Restrictions.

Participants will peacefully drive in solidarity with Canadians who are unable to work or travel because of divisive and discriminatory Federal Mandates. We also advocate for the review of the Emergency Measures Act and Public Health Act to ensure that citizens' constitutional freedoms will be adequately respected in the future at all levels of government.

Here's the plan:

Saturday February 19th, 2022

10am to 12noon.

Zello name: MBfree (download Zello walkie-talkie app. and request to be a contact) 9h30: Gather at Flying J's in Headingly at 9h30 (Gas and Auto Entrance). Free signs will be available. Canadian Flags encouraged. Keep it family friendly please.

Tune-in to Zello for instructions and National Anthem. Only moderators will be allowed to speak.

10h00: Signing of National Anthem.

10h05: Drive starts. You may merge into the drive, but no volunteers will be handing out signage at merging points.

11h00: At Perimeter Hwy and HWY 1, we will turn onto Fermor Ave (Hwy 1), and head to the Forks.

11h30: Signing of National Anthem in the Fork's parking lot.

Approx. time that drive will pass certain merging points. No volunteers will be handing out signs at these merging points. All encouraged to meet at the starting point if possible.:

1. Hwy 3 and Perimeter (Exit 100 East): approx time - 10h20
2. Hwy 75 and Perimeter (exit 100 East): approx time – 10h40
3. Hwy 59 & Perimeter (exit 100 North): approx time - 10h50
